The prayer's simplicity makes it accessible to all, regardless of faith background or spiritual maturity. Many consider it one of the most influential examples of Catholic prayers for peace.

The prayer typically reads:

- > Lord, make me an instrument of your peace.
- > Where there is hatred, let me sow love;
- > Where there is injury, pardon;
- > Where there is doubt, faith;
- > Where there is despair, hope;
- > Where there is darkness, light;
- > Where there is sadness, joy.
- > O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek

- > to be consoled as to console;
- > to be understood as to understand;
- > to be loved as to love.
- > For it is in giving that we receive;
- > it is in pardoning that we are pardoned;
- > and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.
